Reflections on Holy Week

Fr. Stephen

This year on April 2nd, we begin the celebration of Holy Week with Palm Sunday. Its liturgy directs us to pray “that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby you have given us life and immortality.”<sup>1</sup> The Passion Gospel, often divided into parts, will be read this Sunday. Later in the week, on Maundy Thursday (a name derived from the Latin word for a mandate or command), we remember the Last Supper, when Jesus celebrated the Passover with his disciples. On this night, our Lord gave us a “new commandment to love one another just as I have loved you.”<sup>2</sup> In a demonstration of what this new mandate means, Jesus said, “For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you.”<sup>3</sup> For “if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, then you ought also to wash one another’s feet.”<sup>4</sup> Lastly, on Good Friday, our focus this year will be on one of the last sayings of Christ from the cross.

May we complete the observance of a Holy Lent with the satisfaction that we have run well the race set before us.

Devotional Thoughts for Good Friday

Vicki Derka

As we make a final effort to observe a holy Lent on Good Friday, the contemplation of the cross, as portrayed in the picture below, enables us "to turn our daily lives into sacraments and use our whole selves in the effort to become pure." Clinging to the cross allows us to "grasp the sacramental nature of our lives," and it helps us "to live our lives in conscious witness to the grace of the living Lord." (Quotes from Vicki Derka's blog article "Lent and the Incarnation")

TUESDAY MORNING HEALING-PRAYER SERVICE

Recently we were honored to have Rev. Jim Bolyard of Carthage United Methodist Church as a guest at the Tuesday Morning Healing/Prayer Service.

All are welcome. Please join us, 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month. 11:00 a.m.

For lo, the winter has passed
 The snow is over and gone
 The flowers appear on the earth
 The time for singing has come.
 The time for singing has come.

An Invitation

An Invitation to Attend Cursillo -- April 20-23,
 2023, Camp Walter Johnson, Denton NC

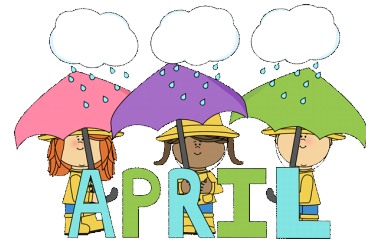

The word Cursillo means “a short course.” It is a renewal moment in the church that presents a short course to help men and women understand their calling to grow deeper in their relationship with God and it supports an ongoing development of Christian leadership. During the weekend, the participants experience community as they learn, pray, sing, and share personal insights into what it means to live for Christ in fruitful service. If you would like to learn more about how you can be a participant, don’t hesitate to contact Stephen or go directly to the Cursillo website at [NC Episcopal Cursillo \(nccursillo.org\)](http://NC Episcopal Cursillo (nccursillo.org))

A man was telling his neighbor, “I just bought a new hearing aid. It cost me four thousand dollars, but it's state of the art. It's perfect.”
 “Really,” answered the neighbor. “What kind is it?”
 “Twelve thirty.”

Overheard in a local furniture store ---
 Salesman: “This sofa will hold five friends without problems.”
 Woman: “I don’t have five friends without problems.”
