LENTEN STUDY

During four Sundays in Lent, Vicki Derka presented a series of lessons focused on the writings of 14th-century mystic Julian of Norwich. We talked of experiences of pain and loss as a means of bringing us closer to God based on the philosophy espoused by Julian: "All shall be well. All shall be well. All manner of things shall be well."

The study was based on The Drawing of This Love, by Robert Fruehwirth.

Psalm 46:10 "Be Still and know that I am God"

The Golf Tournament will take place on Saturday, May 24 (Memorial Day Weekend) at the Seven Lakes Golf Club. Steve, Jim, and Bob Rinaldi are coordinating this event.

When I was a kid, bedtime was 9:00 p.m. I couldn't wait to be a grownup so I could go to bed any time I wanted. Turns out to be 9:00 p.m. copied

The message below is part of an email from our former priest, Fr. Bob Brown. The attached photo indicates some of our activity up here in the north. The fact is that the people are not coming to the church because of their go-go lifestyle so we went to the people at our train station as they went on their way to work. One woman came rushing up to us and said, "I am going to work and then to the Philadelphia Flower Show and I was racking my brain to figure out a way to get my ashes - and here you are. Thank you. Thank you." I'm sure she is telling her friends about her encounter with the church as a result.
