Happy 4th of July!

A PRAYER FOR PEACE

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, guide the nations of the world into the way of justice and truth, and establish among them that peace which is the fruit of righteousness, that they may become the kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen BCP, page 816

Search for a Vicar

With Bishop Sam Rodman's approval, the description for a part-time Vicar will be placed on the Diocesan website and other appropriate websites.

St. Mary Magdalene Episcopal Church is seeking a half-time Vicar to serve a minimum of two Sunday Eucharists per month, including Holy Week and Christmas Eve. Additional time spent would include liturgy and sermon preparation, consultation with the organist, visitation and fellowship with parishioners, and long-range planning. We are seeking a Vicar who will become part of our local community.

The annual compensation for half-time Vicar is $36,294.

Julia Poisson, Senior Warden, remains in consultation with Rev. Marion Sprott, Diocesan Transitions Officer.

THE POWER OF GRATITUDE

Thanksgiving transforms lives. Like any other skill, it takes practice to learn how to live a life of gratitude and thanksgiving. Jesus was clear that thanking God as a way of life enables us to live fuller and more peaceful lives. Why is that? For one thing, thanksgiving cannot be done outside of relationship. We simply cannot be lonely, isolated, and self-centered while noticing the good things and wonderful people in our lives. When we are stuck in a negative place, the last thing on our minds is giving thanks to anyone for anything. On the other hand, if we are expressing thanksgiving from our hearts, we are virtually outside of ourselves, and it is impossible to remain totally self-focused. The same thing holds true for anger and bitterness and jealousy and feeling sorry for ourselves. All of those negative feelings and emotions are closely tied to self-centeredness. Jesus was very clear that the only way to live fully and joyfully is with an orientation outside of ourselves. Actually, I think we all know that.....

Shalom, +David

AROUND THE PARISH

Vicki Derka is taking organ lessons, making great progress. The organ was recently serviced and repaired.

Lloyd Brewer and Bette Hanham are enjoying their book club, now reading The Women, a historical novel about nurses during the Vietnam War. They often see Valerie Doolittle, a former St. MM member, who is a member of the same book club. Valerie travels from Mint Hill, NC, on meeting days. Sometimes she hosts the meeting, and the Seven Lakes members travel to Mint Hill.

The Tuesday Morning Healing/Prayer Service continues to thrive, usually with six or seven attending. Sherol is continually in contact with parishioners regarding their prayer needs.

During our transition time, Jim Douglass will keep the website updated regarding the schedule of visiting priests. Visit the website and see the regular postings. Thanks, Jim.

ST. MM TO SUBMIT GRANT
PROPASAL TO NC DIOCESE

Sherol Grigerick

After the sale of the Diocesan House in Raleigh in 2023, the Diocese set up five million dollars in grants and matching funds to support projects and ministries of parishes and missions in the Diocese. These projects must be aligned with at least one of the Missions Strategy Goals. These grants have been appropriated in three phases. St. MM is applying for a $10,000 grant in phase 3, and we are aligning our grant request with the goal of becoming educated about racial, ethnic, social and economic injustice. Our mission will be to use all of these funds for outreach to financially assist five non-profit organizations, four of them local, which serve people of color. These organizations are all financially struggling due to a decrease in federal funding. Grant applications for Phase 3 must be received by August 15. We are hopeful to receive this grant and thereby continue our commitment of Christian love and generosity to those in need.

Flowers for Worship

If you would like to provide flowers for the sanctuary, please sign up and indicate your chosen date on the sign-up sheet in the hallway near the office. A $50.00 donation is requested.
